DIRECTOR BETTY ANDERSON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF JURUPA COMMUNITY SERVICES DISTRICT
Director Jane Anderson Elected Vice President for 2009-10

MIRA LOMA, Calif. – December 15, 2009 – The Jurupa Community Services District (JCSD) elected Director Betty Anderson as President and Director Jane Anderson as Vice President of the Board of Directors at the December 14 meeting. The new officers are joined by past President Kathryn Bogart, Director R. M. “Cook” Barela and Director Ken McLaughlin.

President Anderson said, “I’m looking forward to continuing to ensure the water quality for all of our customers and to promoting fiscal responsibility in these challenging economic times.” President Anderson was elected to the JCSD Board of Directors in 2007 and has served on the Water, Legislative, Finance and Conservation committees during the past year. A resident of Mira Loma since 1989, Mrs. Anderson has worked in the Jurupa Unified School District and the Fontana Unified School District. She has been an active volunteer in the schools and is also a member of the Jurupa Citizens Corp, where she holds the Community Emergency Response Training (CERT) certification. Mrs. Anderson and her husband Stephen have four adult children; three sons, one daughter and a son-in-law.
