Questions and Answers

Question 1.1: Looking over attachment B, it has called out for a propagation study to be performed for Radio Frequency (RF) responses. We will be responding with our RF solution and would like to request all available assets that could be utilized for mounting our data collector units. We would also like to request all meter locations to successfully run the propagation study to meet your coverage requirements.

Answer 1.1: Attached is the requested information (Attachment 1 – 3). All meters are shown as opposed to just those in phase one.
