Jurupa Community Services District Announced as “Top Workplace” in Inland Empire

This is the third time Jurupa Community Services District has been recognized.

Jurupa Valley, CA (January 30, 2025) - The Jurupa Community Services District (JCSD) celebrates its return as a “Top Workplace” recognized by Inland News Group, comprised of The Press Enterprise, The Sun, and the Inland Valley Daily Bulletin. This prestigious award reflects organizational excellence, a testament to the strategic planning and leadership of our Board of Directors and the exceptional dedication of JCSD employees.

JCSD’s outstanding workplace environment has contributed to its recognition in several prestigious areas. Its innovative human resources strategies earned the IPMA-HR Award for Innovation and Excellence, reflecting its employee engagement and professional development. Additionally, JCSD has been awarded the Association of California Water Agencies Innovation Award and recognized as California’s Wastewater Collections System of the Year.

The “Top Workplace” distinction highlights JCSD’s efforts to cultivate a workplace culture rooted in respect, trust, and inspiration. This honor is significant because it is based on an independent survey hosted by Energage, which gathers anonymous feedback directly from employees.

“This recognition is a testament to the incredible dedication and collaboration of our team,” said Chris Berch, General Manager of JCSD. “We take great pride in fostering an environment where employees feel valued, supported, and inspired to excel. This award reaffirms our commitment to excellence both internally and in the services we provide to our community.”

JCSD status as a top employer enhances the essential services it provides. From ensuring water reliability and safety to fostering recreational spaces and community programs, the well-being and professional growth of JCSD’s employees directly contribute to the vitality of Eastvale and Jurupa Valley. Being named one of the “Top Workplaces” emphasizes JCSD’s reputation as an employer of excellence and a leader in the region.

Founded in 1956, the Jurupa Community Services District is a public agency providing services and programs to Jurupa Valley and Eastvale. It is governed by a Board of Directors comprised of five elected representatives from both cities. Serving over 130,000 people in a 40-square-mile area, JCSD provides a variety of community services and programs, including water, sewer, streetlights, frontage landscape maintenance, graffiti abatement, and parks and recreation services.
